the dead, object for which he so long struggled & contended against powerful odds with the forces of darkness came at last gave us his precious life How nobly the pioneer priest met ~~from~~ ~~from his~~ telling them that he did not worship a slaveholding God I wish his companion had been as uncompromising and told the men to they did not believe in a god of Mercy or the Gallows. How long think you would men be murdered in this way if if the churches calling themselves Evangelical with the Priest at their head did not stand as propt to the Bloody institution.
But like Haman they may be dealing their own doom. But thank God in spite of the dust priest craft is continually throwing in the the Eye of the people the scales are falling and many are begining to see men as trees walking May God hasten the day when we shall see Sectarian Bigotry in all its deformity and flee from it as we are often warned to from the wrath to come. Yours devotedly

R J & Owen

Dr Susan B Anthony of Rochester by Jane her Sister Hope last one. on the true woman to a true audience it was every way worthy of the noble woman who gave it

Clarement N H Dec 23, 1859

144

Friend Garrison

I am happy to see the contribution to the noble family of one of the most unselfish Patriots who have Blessed the world. As Christ and the early Apostels was to God for the ~~Great~~ Generation in which they lived Even so in our day there who would redeem the World must Suffer all manner of Reproach and Some life itself But John Brown ~~and~~ his Associates though dead will speak in Thunder tones in the Ears of this Guilty nation. And is it not as necessary now as in Christs time to have Such noble sacrifices of Human life to awaken the People to ~~to~~ See the dreadful Volcano over which we have to long been slumbering. I have been thinking that I can contribute a Small Pittance in no better way to the Family of Mr Brown & the cause of humanity than to send them The Liberator (If they do not allready receive it) Believing as I do that it will help them to Consummate ~~for which he so bravely struggled against the~~